^{11/8}I, HARRY GOLD, hereby make the following voluntary statement to T. SCOTT HILL, JR., and RICHARD E. BRENNAN, who have identified themselves to me as Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. No threats or promises have been made me, and I realize that I do not have to make any statement, and any statement I do make may be used against me in a Court of Law. I realize that I have a right to counsel.

I would like to add the following to the statement which I gave the above Agents on May 22, 1950. The matter concerns an elaboration on my various meetings ^{11/8}with KLAUS FUCHS.

The first meeting took place in late January or very early February 1950, and was at the Henry Street apartment on the East side of New York.

The second meeting, and I had set the place, and the time had been agreed upon mutually by KLAUS and myself, was on the Northwest corner of 69th Street and Lexington Avenue; this was about ten days to two weeks after the first meeting. The place I have specified was a bank with very tall colonnades, and there is a subway entrance in the bank building itself. I met KLAUS directly under one of the first colonnades, or possibly along 69th Street on the South side of the bank. We walked in the general direction of the Queensboro Bridge, the intention in my mind being that we would walk across the bridge and into Queens itself. However, this bridge was closed to foot traffic during this period, and just as we walked along 1st Avenue, North of the bridge.

TSH

REB

We may have walked as far North as 75th Street, and we may have gone back to 2nd Avenue, and very likely we made at least several passages on the dark deserted streets between 1st Avenue and 2nd, between 55th Street and 70th Street.

My recollection of the third meeting with KLAUS FUCHS ^{NH} It occurred in March of 1944. I recall this clearly, it was still quite cold and we both wore overcoats. This took place on Madison Avenue in the 70's, and we immediately turned into one of the dark deserted side streets toward 5th, and the transfer of information took place there. The whole affair took possibly 30 seconds or one minute, and I immediately walked ahead of KLAUS and down 5th Avenue toward 57th Street and 6th Avenue, where approximately 15 minutes later I turned over the information to JOHN. Here again the meeting was of the briefest possible duration, possibly a minute or so.

The fourth meeting with KLAUS FUCHS took place in the Bronx of New York, and was in front of a large movie theater on the Grand Concourse near Fordham Road, but not quite that far.

I went to a walk partly along the Grand Concourse, but usually on the side streets, during which time we discussed the next meeting which was to be at Queens, and at which a second transfer of information was to take place, and the exact details were arranged. After this I took KLAUS to dinner, it was a wet and somewhat chilled night for April, and as I recall, he had a bad cough, and I did not wish to expose him to the elements any more than was necessary. This whole procedure of going to dinner in a restaurant was against anything

REB

Harry Gold

that we had previously set forth as a matter of technique of meeting, but I felt that the circumstance justified such a deviation from the rules. We had a dinner at which we discussed a number of matters, including music and chess. It was also at this dinner that we agreed that should either of us ever be questioned as to how we happened to meet, that the story would be that we had met at one of the New York Philharmonic's concerts sometime in March of 1944, and in Carnegie Hall; ^{N.B.} the idea was that we had had adjacent seats and had talked together in the lobby during the intermission. Also, there was the idea that at a subsequent time I would go to the files of a New York paper, most likely the New York Sun, and I believe I mentioned this paper to KLAUS, and would look up the date of such a concert and would determine what numbers or what musical selections had been on the program. I would then give KLAUS a list of the musical selections so that we would both be familiar with the program were we questioned. The restaurant to which I took KLAUS to dinner was called Rosenheim's, and is adjacent to Alexanders Department Store at Fordham Road and the Grand Concourse. After we had dinner and emerged from Rosenheim's--the weather was still nasty--I recall a cold drizzle was falling, ^{we} ~~we~~ ^{N.B.} ~~we~~ took a cab and went downtown to the neighborhood of the 60's and Madison Avenue. There is some possibility that it may have been the 50's and Lexington Avenue. We went into a small bar which also contained tables, and sat at one of these tables and had several drinks. We then left the bar and I put KLAUS in a cab. I now recall that the reason for KLAUS taking the cab was that he lived on the other side of Manhattan, and

TSM

REB

Harry Gold

^{public J.H.} direct transportation from Central Park City at night is very difficult. After KLAUS's cab had departed I waited for a few moments until an empty cab came along, and took this to the Pennsylvania Station and then took the next train to Philadelphia.

My fifth meeting with KLAUS FUCHS took place in May of 1944, and was in Queens, not too far from Queensboro Plaza. I recall the event clearly because I got lost in the neighborhood of Queens' Plaza and had to take a cut for a distance of about a half a mile until I came to the spot I had indicated to KLAUS FUCHS. I was possibly two or three minutes late; he was already there. On this occasion FUCHS gave me the second packet of information, again consisting of some 25 to 40 pages. The total time of the meeting was not over three or four minutes, and after I left him, I walked rapidly further out in Queens, and then took an elevated train some distance further, possibly a ten minute ride. After leaving the elevated I was in the general area where I was to meet JOHN. I still had about five minutes to wait and I recall stopping near a drug store, and taking a glimpse at the information that KLAUS had turned over to me. This was in a very small but distinctive wrapper; it was in ink, and consisted mainly of mathematical derivations. There was also further along in the report a good deal of descriptive detail. I did not look at the report for much more than two minutes at the most. About five minutes after this I went to the place where I was to meet JOHN, this was somewhere between Woodside and Jackson Heights, and somewhere close to the elevated line which runs out Queens and ends in Flushing; there I turned over the information to JOHN. ^{N.B.} The total time of transfer was not more than one minute with hardly a word said. The time of the meeting with KLAUS was about 7:00 o'clock in the evening, possibly somewhat earlier. The time of the meeting with JOHN was about 7:30. As I recall it was dark or certainly very early evening when I met JOHN, but this may have been due to the fact that the entire day was heavily overcast.

The sixth meeting with KLAUS FUCHS occurred in Brooklyn, and it was somewhere in the area of Boro Hall. ^{N.B.} This was in June, 1941. ^{N.B.}

During this meeting I recall that KLAUS FUCHS told me that there was some possibility that his sister who lived in Cambridge, Massachusetts, he did not give me her name, ^{N.B.} however, might come to New York. He explained to me that his sister was married and had two children, and that she was having great difficulty with her husband and that she was fully intending to leave her husband and come to New York. Should this occur, KLAUS told me that he would like very much to be able to share an apartment with his sister. I gathered that he and his sister were very close to each other and also the fact that KLAUS was extremely fond of ^{the} children. ^{N.B.} KLAUS told me that he brought up the matter because he first wanted me to inquire of my superior whether such an action would be all right. I said that I would make the inquiry. This conversation took place while we were walking away from Boro Hall and further into Brooklyn. I recall clearly that after this meeting I met JOHN, on the very same evening. The meeting with KLAUS took place at about 8:30 and lasted for possibly half to three quarters of an hour, possibly even an hour, so that I met JOHN sometime about 9:00.

REB

Harry Gold

There may have been during this meeting with JOHN and the just completed one with KLAUS FUCHS, some transfer of information from KLAUS to me and then from myself to JOHN; however, I do not clearly recall such an event. I do not recall much of the subject of my conversation with JOHN, except that he was extremely satisfied with the way that things were going and that he left me after a very brief meeting of possibly five to ten minutes. It is this briefness of the meeting with JOHN that makes me think that there may have been some transfer of information.

The seventh meeting with KLAUS FUCHS occurred in either very late June, but most likely in early July of 1944. This took place near an Art Museum in the 60's, and on the West side of 5th Avenue. We went for a long walk, almost entirely in Central Park and in the many winding roads and small paths leading through the park itself. This meeting took at least an hour and a half and was a very leisurely one.

Not later in the year, or early 14. 1945. During this walk KLAUS told me that there was some possibility ^{P.S.} that he would be transferred somewhere to the South-west. He thought that possibly this would be Mexico. He also told me at this time that his brother, GERHARD, was now in Switzerland and was convalescing as a result of having been only recently released from a German concentration camp. I gathered from the conversation that GERHARD was of the same political ^{conviction} ~~conviction~~ as KLAUS FUCHS. I also told KLAUS that it would be perfectly all right, should his sister come to New York, for him to take an apartment together with her and the children. Actually, I had not mentioned the matter to JOHN at all, but had taken it upon myself to tell KLAUS that such a proceeding was O.K.

The eighth meeting was to take place in Brooklyn and was to be ⁱⁿ about two weeks, possibly three, after the meeting in Central Park ^{N.Y.} in July; this would place it about the end of July 1944. The meeting was to occur in front of the Bell Cinema, which is just off the Eastern Parkway in Brooklyn and very close to the Brooklyn Museum of Art, only it is on the ^{opposite} ~~same~~ ^{N.Y.} side of the Parkway from the Museum. This meeting did not take place, nor did a subsequent one which had been scheduled for such an eventuality, on Central Park West, and somewhere about 96th Street and possibly somewhat above 96th.

On the second occasion I became very worried, particularly since the area is very close to a section of New York where "nuggings" often occur, and also the fact that KLAUS was of slight build and might seem an inviting prey. I would like to emphasize that neither the meeting at the Bell Cinema in Brooklyn, nor the one on Central Park West, about 96th Street, occurred because of the fact that KLAUS FUCHS did not show up -- I was there on both occasions.

When I reported the fact of the second unsuccessful attempt with KLAUS FUCHS to JOHN, we held a very long discussion lasting possibly two hours, in which we speculated upon just what the difficulty might be. Our principal trouble was to decide whether KLAUS, for some reason was unable to keep the meetings ^{if} ~~that~~ ^{N.Y.} he was still in New York, or whether he had actually left New York.

TSM

On the occasion of my next meeting with JOHN, which was in, I believe, very late August of 1944, the following events occurred:

This meeting took place on a very early Sunday morning, I would say about 8:30 to 9:00 o'clock, and it occurred in downtown New York, ^{near Washington Square. N.Y.} At this time JOHN told me that he had ascertained the address of KLAUS FUCHS, and that I should, that very morning, make inquiry at that address as to whether KLAUS was there. Toward this end I went some distance up town and in one of the railroad stations I purchased a book called ^{N.Y.} "ROBERT THE REVEALER" which had recently been published and had been written by THOMAS LAMM. On the inside cover of this book I printed very legibly the following, "K. FUCHS, 128 West 77th Street, New York, ^{N.Y.} which address John had given me. N.Y. N.Y." It was this book that I took with me to the address given. I recall the appearance of the building very well. It was some sort of white stone and looked newer and better kept than the other buildings on the same block. It was, as I recall, also a four-story-tall, used as an apartment house. This building was on the South side of the Street. I looked around outside the building, and down a very short flight of steps, ^{N.Y.} and just to the side of the door leading into the building, ^{N.Y.} I noticed a man who was handling some rubbish from the apartment house. I believe that I made an inquiry of him as to whether FUCHS lived there, but he appeared somewhat puzzled by my question. I then opened the door and went into the vestibule. There may have been a very short flight of steps leading up to the vestibule. There to my satisfaction, above the nameplates, I saw

REB

Harry Gold

one reading, "Dr. KLAUS FUCHS," though it might have read, "Dr. K. FUCHS."
I pressed the buzzer, but there was no answer, and finally I opened the door leading from the vestibule into the main hall; this ^{door} was unlocked.
I went into the main hall, along the first floor, looking for the apartment which as I recall had been given alongside the nameplate as being 1-B or 1F, (there is some possibility that it may have been 1-D). As I walked along the vestibule a door opened, either in the very apartment where KLAUS was supposed to live or possibly in the one alongside it, and an old woman looked out. Also at that time there came behind me the janitor. I asked the woman for the apartment of Dr. FUCHS, and at this time the janitor joined in the conversation. I can not recall clearly whether it was he or she who told me that Dr. FUCHS was no longer there. On further questioning, when I asked how I could get in touch with him, they said that they did not think that I could; that he had left town for "somewhere on a boat." ^{K.B.} I then explained to them that I was a friend of Dr. FUCHS and that I had merely wanted to return this book which he had loaned to me. I did not deem it wise to make any further inquiries at 123 West 77th Street, but I do recall the janitor and the woman, ^{who} ^{K.B.} I then left.

Later that morning, and somewhere between 10:00 and 11:00 o'clock, possibly closer to 11:00, I met JOHN on Broadway, somewhere around 26th and Broadway, and possibly further up on Broadway and very close to Columbia University. I told JOHN about the results of my investigation and we held a long discussion, principally while walking along Riverside Drive and in the area of the 90's. We talked at great length as to how we might possibly send a letter or communication to the 77th Street address with the hope that it would be forwarded to FUCHS.

I believe that our conclusion was that such a procedure might be too risky as it might involve an awkward explanation on KLAUS' part to the authorities, who were very likely censoring all mail. After some further discussion the only conclusion we could come to, and the advice which I gave him, was to "sit tight."

On the occasion of a subsequent meeting in early September of 1944, we again discussed at length the matter of getting in touch with KLAUS FUCHS, and it was there, I believe, that I mentioned the fact that FUCHS had a sister who lived in Boston. Now it may be possible that JOHN himself may have brought up the matter of FUCHS's sister. I believe this latter to be true, since I had not previously mentioned anything about FUCHS's sister to JOHN. In any event, JOHN told me that he thought that there lay our best line of inquiry.

On the occasion of the next meeting, about the middle of September, JOHN told me with great glee that he had ascertained both the name and the whereabouts of FUCHS's sister. He said that he gave me the name of Mrs. ROSE H. HINTERMAN, and that she lived in Cambridge, Massachusetts. I do not recall JOHN having given me the street and number.

I went by coach on a Sunday in very late September to Boston, Massachusetts. I arrived there very early in the evening and recall looking up the address in the telephone directory. OF ROBERT HINTERMAN. This was, as I recall, 111 Lakewood Street or Avenue, in Cambridge. I went to this address and the entire street was dark as well as the home where the ~~HEINEMAN~~^{H.B.} lived. However, I knocked at the door and a woman answered. I inquired for Mrs. HEINEMAN and the woman replied that the HEINEMANS were still away on their vacation and were not expected back until sometime in October. I gathered somehow that the woman was a housekeeper of some sort. I believe that the woman wanted me to leave my name and address, but I think that I merely said that I would call again sometime in October and that the matter was not very important. I gave no indication that I was from out of town.

First I returned from Boston to Philadelphia, and then several days later I met JOHN in New York and told him about the results of my trip. He was highly pleased that we had succeeded in locating Mrs. HEINEMAN, and we agreed that in October I would take another trip to Cambridge.

This second trip to Cambridge occurred in either very late October, ~~or~~^{in N.B.} most likely early November. Upon this occasion I took with me a piece of paper or a card inclosed in an envelope, and on this piece of paper ^{instructions} were the following: ~~Instructions~~ There was given the name of a man and a phone number, I believe that the first name began with a "J" and that the last name was something like "HEAPMAN," but I am not very certain on this point at all. Also on the piece of paper was the information that HIAUS was to call the phone number given, any time—on any morning between the hours of 8:00 and 8:30, and was to give the following message: Merely to say, "I have arrived in Cambridge and will be here for - - - ~~days~~ ^{H.S.} This message was printed by me in Engineering lettering, but the details were given to me by JOHN. Also, the message was sealed in the envelope. As I have said, I arrived in Cambridge early on a weekday morning and sometime in early November of 1944. The reason for my making the trip during a weekday, and the reason for arriving in the morning, ~~was~~ ^{was} the recollection I had of a warning from JOHN that it would be inadvisable to be at the HILL LAY home while ~~JOHN HILL LAY~~ was there. The trip took place as I have indicated, and as it was planned. I arrived in Boston on a weekday morning early in November. I then went directly to Cambridge, and at 144 Lakeview Avenue, walked up to the door and rang the bell. A young woman appeared, somewhere in her very early 30's, and I asked for MRS. HENRIAN. She said that she was Mrs. HENRIAN. I told her that I was a friend of KLAUS FUCHS, and for a moment she seemed somewhat puzzled, and then she said, "Oh, yes, by any chance did you call sometime in September when we were away?" I said "Yes, I am the man." I entered the house and stayed there for possibly half an hour. I noticed that there were two children there, the oldest one a boy called STEVE, and I recall a very small child, and ~~the other child was also a boy~~ ^{of H.S.} ~~the other child was also a boy~~ ^{the other child was also a boy} considerably younger than STEVE, whom I took to be about seven years of age, and this third child was a girl of about four. I spoke to her then about KLAUS, and Mrs. HENRIAN said that she was very glad that he was now in the United States. They were very close and KLAUS was very fond of the children.

The way, at this time have indicated that he had been in New York, and visited Cambridge. I told her that I had met KLAUS in New York, and that we had become very firm friends, and that I just happened to be on business in the Boston area and had thought I might stop by and inquire about him. Mrs. KNEIPER told me that KLAUS had been transferred somewhere in the Southwest United States, but that she expected him here about Christmas time. I believe that she indicated that she had received H.H. and told her about him. She said that she thought that he would certainly be here about Christmas, as he usually made a great event of exchanging presents for the children. I told her that my plans for the future and my whereabouts were very uncertain, and in that eventuality I would leave a message for KLAUS which would tell him how best to get in touch with me. I then gave her the sealed envelope, and told her should KLAUS arrive, to give it to him.

I then returned to Philadelphia, and a few days subsequent, possibly a week or so later, reported the results of my trip to JOHN. At this time, I recall, we made an emergency arrangement whereby JOHN could get in touch with me should this emergency arise, the one with the phone number in Philadelphia, a view of the situation in Cambridge. This emergency arrangement, which would have involved the passage of several days, was never used, and instead, in the first week in January 1946, JOHN called on a Sunday before 7:00 A.M., on a Sunday morning, just as I was getting ready to go to work; with some difficulty he described to me the fact that he was in a gasoline station, near what I finally determined to be Oxford Circle section of Philadelphia. JOHN wanted to know if I would come down there and meet him. I did so.

It was a very snowy morning, I recall it well, and JOHN was wet. We got on the car again and went down ^{to} the terminal in Frankford, where JOHN told me that he had just the previous day received notification that FUCHS was now at Cambridge. He also told me at that time that the reason he had not used the emergency meeting was that he had some other affairs to attend to which would have taken him out of New York, and where he would have been unable to get in touch with me. He then told me that I must, as soon as possible, arrange to go to Cambridge. I did so. I believe that I met JOHN on a Tuesday or a Wednesday, and that I arrived in Cambridge on most likely a Friday. I went directly to the HEINEMAN home, this was in the morning, and when I knocked I was admitted by, I believe, a servant girl. KLAUS was there and welcomed me. Mrs. HEINEMAN left after a few minutes and excused herself, saying, "I have to pick up the children from the school." KLAUS asked me to go upstairs with him to his room, which was the front one looking out on the street, and we sat there for possibly 15 or 20 minutes, during which time the following took place: KLAUS told me that he was located at an atomic energy experimental station which was called Los Alamos and which was in the state of New Mexico. He said that Los Alamos had been a very exclusive boys' school, and that there was nothing else in that area. The nearest habitation of any kind was Santa Fe. He told me that he was getting along very well there, but that he was strictly limited in regard to being able to leave Los Alamos. He said that it had only been with the greatest difficulty and due to the fact that he had gotten a bit ahead on his work, as regards the rest of the group, and he was then able to arrange time off to come to Cambridge. I had, previously, that is on the occasion of my meeting with JOHN in Philadelphia, been told of an arrangement which involved meeting KLAUS again in Cambridge, should he make another trip. The place of the meeting was to be somewhere in the area of the Charles River. JOHN had told me that it would be inadvisable to meet at the HEINEMAN home again and we were only doing so this time because it was the only way that I could meet KLAUS without utilizing too lengthy a message or ~~length~~ ^{set} of instructions. When I mentioned the ~~meeting~~ ^{proposed} ~~meeting~~ ^{H.H.} near the Charles River to KLAUS, he told me that such would be impossible; that he was certain that it would be a very long time, possibly even a year, before he could again leave Los Alamos, and that the next meeting would have to take place in Santa Fe. ^{We} ~~He~~ discussed this matter at some length. I believe that KLAUS told me that about April he would again have information for me, but I told him that I could not possibly get to Santa Fe in April. We finally set a date which was very early in June, and we also set the exact hour, which as I recall, was 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon of ~~the~~ ^{the} first Saturday in June. ~~He~~ ^{H.H.} gave me a map of Santa Fe, and indicated on it the Gaville Street Bridge over the Rio Santa Fe. He also told me that he would make every effort to keep this appointment.

To the best of my recollection, I recall that should this scheduled meeting on the first Saturday in June not take place, that there was provision made for an alternate meeting, most likely on the first Saturday in the following month, and at the same time and place.

KLAUS gave me a quite considerable packet of information, and by this time, I recall, Mrs. HEINEMAN had returned and one of the children peered curiously into the room. Mrs. HEINEMAN called the child back, though possibly it may have been the housekeeper who called the child back. In any event the child was called away. There also occurred the following events:

As a Christmas present I gave KLAUS a wallet of the very thin dress or opera type. Also, I had been given the sum of $1,500.00 by JOHN with instructions to give it to KLAUS, but that I must proceed very delicately in this last matter so as not to offend him and that under no circumstance must I insist upon or make an issue of this matter. KLAUS did accept the wallet, but looked somewhat bewildered, and when I made some very tentative inquiries concerning whether he needed any money either for himself or possibly for his sister, the reply was so cold and final that I went no further with the matter. It was quite obvious that by even mentioning ^{this} $~~1,500~~, I had offended the man. I left shortly thereafter, ^{W.K.} and returned to New York. There I turned over the information to JOHN and also returned to him the $1,500.00, saying that I had made some tentative inquiry, but that KLAUS FUCHS had responded so violently that I deemed it inadvisable to pursue the subject further. I recall very well that on the occasion of my meeting KLAUS FUCHS at the HEINEMAN's in Cambridge, that there was a heavy snow on the ground. This transfer of the information from me to JOHN was in New York City, but I do not believe it was in Manhattan, and I can not recall the exact borough.

Just prior to my trip to Santa Fe, and I am referring to the first trip, and in very late May of 1945, on a Saturday afternoon, I met JOHN in a bar near 42nd Street and 3rd Avenue ^{in New York City}. I believe it was actually the Southwest corner of 42nd Street at 3rd Avenue. JOHN verified the fact that I was going on the trip and we made arrangements for a meeting in New York on my return from Santa Fe. The actual place of the meeting was to be in Brooklyn.

I left Philadelphia and went by train to Chicago, just about the end of May. From the Union Station in Chicago, I went to the Dearborn Station, and managed to obtain space (an upper) to Albuquerque, New Mexico. I would like to state here that I had been told by JOHN to use a very circuitous route which involved going beyond Albuquerque and into Arizona, and then going from Arizona to El Paso, Texas, and then from El Paso to Santa Fe. However, I was extremely short of money, and had to watch what I had very carefully; and such a trip was completely out of the question. Also, there was the matter of time; it was only with the greatest difficulty and only at the last minute that I had been able to arrange to take part of my vacation that early in the year. I recall that the train that I took did not go directly to Albuquerque, but stopped at Clovis, New Mexico; there we took a coach, attached to a shunt engine, for a distance of some 25 to 30 miles into Albuquerque. I would also like to add that KLA'S had advised me that ^{by} getting off at Lamy, New Mexico, some 40 miles from Albuquerque, that I could get direct transportation into Santa Fe, without first going to Albuquerque. This last I had deemed inadvisable, as I thought that the only people going to Santa Fe would be those connected with the atomic energy project and they might wonder who this stranger was in their midst. Very likely, I deemed it certain that most of these people going from Lamy to Santa Fe, would be in uniform. I arrived in ^{Albuquerque N. M.} Santa Fe in the very early afternoon, just shortly after 12:00 o'clock, and inquired the way to the bus station. I believe that either KLAUS had told me that there was transportation by bus from Albuquerque to Santa Fe, or that I had obtained such information from one of the porters or conductors on the Santa Fe line. I took the bus to Santa Fe, and arrived there about 2:30 in the afternoon. I had considerable time to spare until 4:00, and to avoid drawing attention to myself, I went as any ordinary tourist would, to the rather large historical museum located in Santa Fe. There I inquired * about obtaining a map of Santa Fe, and they did give me one which I believe to be identical with the one which KLAUS had shown me in Cambridge, Massachusetts. I wanted such a map because I did not wish to ask the way to the Castillo Street Bridge and have any one in Santa Fe remember such an occurrence. I located the Castillo Street Bridge on the map, and went there promptly at 4:00 o'clock. KLAUS arrived there possibly two or three minutes late, during which two or three minutes I became extremely uneasy, as the area around the Castillo Street Bridge was extremely sparsely settled. He finally came along ^{Alameda} Alameda Street, a gravel road, ^{N. M.} and driving a dilapidated old car, a two seater. He parked the car and we went for a walk, during which time the following events took place: ^{N. M.} H. G.

KLAUS told me that he was getting along very well with his work in Los Alamos, and told me that he did not, however, believe, and that was a reiteration of his statement which he had made several times before,

TSM

REB

~~one~~^{once} in Cambridge and at least once or twice in New York, that the atomic H.B. energy project would be completed in sufficient time for use in the war against the Japanese.

He also told me that everyone concerned with ^{this} ~~his~~ work was working very hard, practically day and night, and that he himself put in an average of from 18 to 20 hours a day. We made arrangements for the next meeting, which KLAUS said should be sometime in August, but I demurred, and we finally set it for the 19th of September 1945.

I would like to state here that the date of ^{the} ~~of~~ first meeting, and H.B. the one that I am now discussing, in Santa Fe, was on the first Saturday H.B. in June of 1945.

The final occurrence was that KLAUS gave me a considerable packet of information. There should be added one more thing, and that is that KLAUS's insistence on a meeting in late August 1945, may have been due to the fact that he had mentioned that some important development was to take place during August, but he did not indicate what this development was. I left KLAUS and took the first bus from Santa Fe to Albuquerque. I had considerable difficulty that evening in trying to obtain a place to sleep, since I did not intend ^{H.B.} to leave Albuquerque until the following day, that is Sunday. I believe that in the course of searching for a hotel room, I registered at the Hilton with the understanding that should a room become available they would save it for me.
During the evening I made inquiry at practically every other hotel of any size in Albuquerque, including one that I recall, the San Francisco.
Finally, about 12:00 o'clock ^{at} ~~at~~ night, the Hilton advised me that there
H.B. was such a long waiting list ahead of me that they were certain that no

TSM

REB

Harry Gold

room would be available that night. I thereupon wandered through Albuquerque and finally, upon asking a policeman, he directed me to a private home near the main street of Albuquerque, Central Avenue, which had been temporarily converted into a boarding house. The only space that these people had, and I with difficulty talked these people into letting me stay there, was in the hallway on the second floor of this home, where a makeshift screen was put up around a very rickety cot. I spent the night there, and late the following afternoon, about 6:00 o'clock, took the train from Albuquerque to Chicago. Here again I had been unable to make prior reservations, and only obtained my space in the early afternoon of Sunday. When I arrived in Chicago I inquired by telephone at the Airport Terminal and determined that the only space I could get was from Chicago to Washington. Even so, that was cheaper than going by train from Chicago to New York or Philadelphia. Accordingly, I went by plane to Washington, and arrived there about 4:30 or 5:00 in the afternoon, and then ^{took N.E.} the Pennsylvania Railroad train from Washington to New York. About 9:00 o'clock in the evening, and somewhere in the area of Metropolitan Avenue in Brooklyn, and I met ^{Mr. Gold} and turned the information over to him, that is, the information I had received from KLAU & TUCHER.

My last meeting with KLAU & TUCHER occurred as scheduled in Santa Fe on September 19, 1945. Again I had the usual difficulties in preparing for this trip, first the matter of money, and I did a considerable amount of borrowing toward this end, some of it at the very last minute. Also there was the matter of obtaining time off, and again with great difficulty, I managed to accomplish this. I took the train from Philadelphia to Chicago, and stayed over in Chicago at the Palmer House. ~~on the~~ ^{N.H.} during the ~~Day of Atonement~~ ^{N.S.}. In the evening I checked out of the Palmer House and went again to the Dearborn Station, where I had earlier in the day obtained space to Albuquerque. I arrived in Albuquerque early in the week, possibly on a Tuesday or Wednesday, and registered at the Hilton Hotel. I used the name "HARRY GOLD," the same which I had used at the Palmer House. From Albuquerque I went to Santa Fe, and very late in the afternoon, about 6:00 o'clock, met KLAUS FUCHS. This meeting place was on the outskirts of Santa Fe, and was near a large church.

For the first time in my association with FUCHS he was late for a meeting which occurred, and by late I mean that he was fully twenty or twenty five minutes tardy. He did come along driving from the outside of Santa Fe in the direction of the city itself. He explained to me that he was very sorry about not being punctual, but that he had great difficulty, first in obtaining the use of the car, and secondly, in being able to get away from his friends with whom he worked at Los Alamos. He also explained to me that there were some bottles of liquor in the bottom of the car which ^{supplied} ~~had~~ been purchased by KLAUS and their friends, in preparation for a party which they were going to have back at Los Alamos that very evening. The purpose of the party was to celebrate the successful use of atomic energy in the form of a weapon. KLAUS also told me, and this occurred while he was driving away from Santa Fe and up into the surrounding hill and desert country, that he himself was rather awestricken by what had occurred, and that ^{J.A.S.}frankly, he had not been too certain ^{A.S.}that the project might not have been abandoned before it was completed, and that certainly he had grievously underestimated the industrial potential of the United States in being able to complete such a gigantic undertaking. He was also greatly concerned by the terrible destruction which the weapon had wrought. He told me that whereas, before, the townspeople in Santa Fe had regarded them, the people at Los Alamos, as a sort of "blondies" ^{J.A.S.}out "it engaged in work which they could not comprehend; that now they were hailed on all sides as conquering heroes, and the townspeople were now very friendly to them. He also told me that the relationship between the British mission and the United States, which once had been extremely cordial and free, had now become somewhat strained, and that there was no longer the free exchange of information between the two groups. He said that certain sections of the project ^{at Los Alamos} ^{N.S.}which had been freely opened to him now were barred. He further said that he had no idea as to how long he would continue to be at Los Alamos, but that he expected that sometime in the near future, possibly about December of 1945, and possibly sometime early in 1946, that the British would have him return to England where he would again secure work on Atomic Energy, exclusively for them. He told me also that he had been notified by a member of the British intelligence that they were trying to contact KLAUS's father in Kiel, Germany, though it may be likely that KLAUS actually said they were trying to repatriate his father from Switzerland to Kiel. I believe that KLAUS said his father had for a time lived in Switzerland during the war, taking care of one of his grandchildren who had been orphaned by the death of its parents in a German concentration camp. In any case, KLAUS was concerned because he told me that his father was very old, and was given to talking rather freely about his son's past, meaning KLAUS's activities in the Communist Party in Germany in the years 1932 and 1933. KLAUS told me that as far as he knew the British had no inkling about his past as it related to his Communist activities, and he was anxious that this continue so. He told me that the British intelligence man had also mentioned that it might be possible to bring KLAUS's father to England, and again KLAUS was concerned, lest his father inadvertently let drop some hint as to KLAUS's past. He was also very much concerned about the welfare of the old man, and was in somewhat of a dilemma. I could not give him very much advice, except to tell him to proceed as he thought best, and that possibly he was greatly overestimating the extent to which the old man would talk and also the extent to which the British might be interested in ^{Klaus's} ~~his~~ past. _{N.H.} I could see that KLAUS was also very much concerned about the welfare and health of his father.

TSM

REB

Harry Gold

The following ^{arrangement} ~~agreement~~ _{N.H.} was made with KLAUS ^{N.H.} for meeting him again should he be transferred to Great Britain, starting with the first Saturday in a given month, which month was to be determined from inquiry at KLAUS's sister's, ^{the meeting} ~~and~~ _{N.H.} was to take place in England as soon as it could be arranged for someone to meet KLAUS there. To amplify, neither of us had any idea as to how soon we could determine from KLAUS's sister when he would actually leave, or had left for Britain. So that a month after

In one hand the person meeting KLAUS would have five books bound together by a tight string. These books were to be carried by a couple of fingers hooked under the string. In the other hand the person was to have ~~in hand~~^{book} a ~~copy~~^{N.B.} containing the outside jacket of BENNETT CERF's book, popular at that time, and which contained a large collection of anecdotes. The book jacket had, I believe, a yellow and green design on it. I can not recall what KLAUS was to have used for a recognition signal, beyond the fact that the person meeting him would have a complete physical description of KLAUS FUCHS. The other point about this meeting with KLAUS FUCHS was that he mentioned that he had attended the first explosion of the bomb at Alamogordo, New Mexico, and he also mentioned to me that the people back at Los Alamos told him of having seen the "Fat Man" bomb being used by the Japanese aircraft. There was also provided for the contingency should KLAUS be in Cambridge later that year. He said that he hoped in any case to be able to again spend the time around Christmas with the HEINEMAN family in Cambridge, and that the best way of ascertaining his whereabouts was to make an inquiry shortly before that time. This meeting took place as I have said in the hills surrounding Santa Fe and was a fair distance away, because below as I could barely see the lights of Santa Fe in the distance. KLAUS drove me into Santa Fe and just on the outskirts of the central area of the town. The last event that transpired before KLAUS dropped me off in Santa Fe, on the outskirts of the central area of the town, was that KLAUS gave me the packet of information relating to atomic energy. This was in accordance with our procedure, whereby no information was to be passed until such time that we were ready to part. After a period of anxious waiting, about an hour and a half, I finally obtained a bus going back to Albuquerque.

I spent part of the night in a room at the Hilton Hotel, and very early in the morning, possibly 2:30 A.M., I was informed by the airlines that there was space for me as far as Kansas City. I was picked up by the Airline's limousine, and went to the Albuquerque Airport and from there by plane to Kansas City. At Kansas City I was forced to leave, and from there I took a day coach to Chicago, arriving late in the evening. I just managed to catch a train leaving La Salle Station and going to New York. I rode part of the way until the morning in the day coach, and the rest of the way ⁱⁿ ~~on~~ a Pullman space. _{H.B.}

I left New York for Philadelphia, and carried on my part of the information which KLAUS had given me, for the next few days. Apparently there was one meeting with JOHN which did not occur simply because I was far too rushed for time to keep such a meeting. It was all that I could do to accomplish this trip to Santa Fe and back. I did meet JOHN some days later after my return to Philadelphia, and the place was in Queens, New York, and was somewhere between Jackson

Heights and Flushing, and also somewhere in the neighborhood of the elevated line that runs through Flushing. There I transferred the information which KLAUS FUCHS had given me to JOHN. Since this last meeting that I had with KLAUS FUCHS, in September of 1945, I have never seen nor heard from him again.

I would like to set out the conversations I had with KLAUS FUCHS concerning his work for the Manhattan Engineer Project.

On one occasion, and I believe this to be on the occasion of our fourth meeting, ~~that is~~ ^{N.Y.} ~~the one where we had dinner at Rosen-~~ ^{N.Y.} ~~hein's Restaurant,~~ KLAUS told me that the atomic energy project was being pursued, or was going to be pursued on a very large scale as regards the separation of the necessary isotope of uranium, somewhere in the Southeastern United States, and he thought possibly that the location would be in Georgia or possibly even Alabama. Also on the occasion of our last meeting in New York, this was the ~~seventh~~ ^{seventh} ~~meeting~~ ^{N.Y.} and occurred during a walk in Central Park, KLAUS told me that the place where he expected to be transferred was somewhere in the Southwest, and he thought most likely in Mexico, not New Mexico. Further, on the occasion of this meeting in Central Park, KLAUS told me that the Finnish Nobel prize winner, NIELS BOHR, was at present in this country under the name NICHOLAS BAKER. KLAUS said that obviously the pseudonym NICHOLAS BAKER was being used because too many people might recall that NIELS BOHR was the discoverer of the commonly accepted BOHR Theory of Atomic Structure, and might relate this fact to the circumstance that some activity regarding atomic energy was going on in the United States. I am certain that I turned the information concerning the separation of the isotopes of uranium by gaseous diffusion in the Southeast United States over to JOHN, as well as the fact that KLAUS was due to be transferred to the Southwestern part of the country, probably Mexico, and also the information that HILS BERT was in this country under the name NICHOLAS BAKER.

REB

Harry Gold

I would like to add that KLAUS knew of only two methods for the separation of the isotopes from uranium, that is methods as were being pursued here in the United States, and that these methods were. (1) The gaseous diffusion process. (2) The electromagnetic separation method.

I recall that this last information concerning the methods for the separation of isotopes was given to me on the occasion of our second meeting, when we were walking along 1st Avenue in Manhattan. I also recall that at that time I had mentioned to KLAUS the possibility of the use of ^{thermal} ~~gaseous~~ diffusion as a means of separating isotopes, but that KLAUS had brushed this aside.

Upon receipt of this verbal information, either separate from, or which he wanted to go along with written information, I made good mental notes of such facts and at the first opportunity I put this material in writing, and later handed it over to JOHN. The verbal information which KLAUS gave me ^{N.Y.} such as the fact concerning HILS BERT being in the country under the name NICHOLAS BAKER;

TSM

RES

Harry Gold

the information concerning the location of the atomic energy project on a large scale, involving gaseous diffusion in the Southeastern United States; and the information concerning the fact of the location of a large scale experimental station in the Southwestern part of the country, possibly even Mexico, ^{which} ~~was~~ data I later reduced to writing and turned over to JOHN. ^{N.S.}

I recall that on the occasion of the sixth meeting with KLAUS, near Boro Hall in Brooklyn, that JOHN had given me several typewritten pieces of paper about three by nine inches, of irregular size, which had contained a number of questions relating to atomic energy. The phraseology of these questions was extremely poor, and I had great difficulty in making any sense out of them. For example, in place of the word "installation" the word "factory" was used; in place of the word "techniques or methods" the words "How to make out" were used. ^{N.S.}

I believe that the original message was probably more accurately phrased, but that either in coding or in translating, or possibly both, ^{probably} ~~that~~ the person who had done such ^{had} no technical background whatever, possibly being on the level of a clerk, and as such, the message had become badly jumbled. I did note that since I could not out of the message, and on this occasion of this meeting in Brooklyn, began to tell KLAUS about what further information was desired. I did not get very far along this course because KLAUS seemed to take ^{offense} ~~offense~~ at being instructed and said very briefly that he had already covered all of such matters very thoroughly, and would continue to do so. ^{N.S.}

REB

Harry Gold

I further believe that on the occasion of our first meeting in Santa Fe, New Mexico, early in June 1945, ~~was~~ KLAUS told me that among the data he had given me was a sketch of the atomic bomb itself. I did not, however, inspect this material, so I can not say whether there was any such, but I do recall clearly FUCHS' statement to ~~the~~ ^{that} effect.

I would like to add that throughout our entire meetings, the relationship between KLAUS, FUCHS and me was that of two firm friends. Further, on the occasion of the last meeting in Santa Fe, KLAUS expressed the hope that sometime in the near future we might be able to meet openly as friends.

Dear Al:

I feel very guilty in not having written you before this and I realize that it looks even worse in writing now when I'm asking for something. But there's me in shilly-shallying around, so it goes. I've gotten into a bit of a financial pickle - due partly to some rather senile generosity, and partly to the fact that folks have been having some difficulty here - and I now stand very much in need of $50. This amount is neither more nor less than I require and will probably carry me through this crisis. Now I quite understand that with the baby coming on that you need all you can put together. Also, there may be other minor troubles which I have no means of knowing about, and I feel like the worst kind of a rat in having to ask you now. Actually, I hope to be able to return the money by middle of June. It's just that I kept putting off things till I got in a spot where I needed the money immediately. I could use

20 right now and I need the rest in wo-at the most. However, don't in any case yourself or your family out in order to me. I'd feel worse than ever if you did.
I'm only asking you with the idea that possibly you can do something and that I expect you to do it. I hope you un-stand that I could never bring myself ask you for the money if I didn't need very badly.

How is the wife these days? It's hard to realize that you'll soon be a father. Ye-man! It'll be a boy you'll see. For once I'll guess right. For the kid's sake I hope gets a break and don't take after you. I was mom that you were expecting and she got a big kick out of it. Pop and you are do-fairly well these days. You know, I so times wonder how you gets along with me around. I'll bet it don't seem like to without me yelling "Hey, you, get my slippers".

How are your mom and Pop these da-see, I haven't seen them for so long. Since wedding to be exact. Tell them my regards will you. I know, I meant to send you a anniversary card but I forgot me, go to me.

I hope to be able to come home for about a week during the middle of June and you can let me have the money, I am ab-certain I can repay you then. I'm just position now where I need it within the next two weeks. In any case, please answer me right away so that I'll know whether it's "yes" or "no". I enclose stamps for the postage.

Dear Al:

I really don't know how to thank you for sending me that money. Boy, won't I have been in a jam without it! & he I came to Philadelphia about the mid of June, as I said I would in my prev letter, I'll tell you the whole story. I just goes to show you how big a dope supposedly educated man can be. & it's me I'm talking about.

Did you say $\frac{2}{3}$, Al? I'm in it December, January, February - - -; & that's about right. Listen, I don't want get in bad with the missus but I've got positive information it's going to a boy! Don't ask me how I know, I know, that's all. A smart guy like - shouldn't know. Did I hear you laughing? But that's all no matter; the important thing is that as little I've got to do with it, I'm very happy about the whole thing - I mean it, to - and when it comes I'll be over a we'll both drink a big "mazel tov".

Right!

See, Al, if you can send me the $25, I sure would appreciate it. That will just pull me out of this mess. Only one thing, though: it's taking an awful chance sending money in a letter without either registering the letter or sending it as a money order. Of course, I realize when you come home you're too tired even now, let alone make a special trip to a post office, but it would be too to have the money go astray. And don't think I'm not grateful for your sending that first amount so soon.

Also, I'm not just shooting off my mouth when I say I'm going to return the whole $50 about the second or third week in June. I know you'll be able to use it. So I'll be hearing from you too and again, thanks a million.

your friend,

Harry.
